

SKELETON

OF PHIPPS FAMILY TO BE UNVEILED

THE WIFE'S ULTIMATUM

Met by Serious and Explicit Charges.

Pittsburg, June 22.—The terms laid down by Mrs. Genevieve Chanier Phipps to her husband, Lawrence C. Phipps, the Pittsburg millionaire, as her ultimatum in agreeing to a settlement of the differences between them, appear to have put the husband in a mood to call his wife's hand. He charges her with infidelity, names two co-respondents, one her cousin, the other the family physician and formerly Mrs. Phipps' school day friend, and asks for an absolute divorce and the enjoyment of Mrs. Phipps from benefit in his endowments upon her of property and stocks. He has his two young daughters by virtue of abduction. He offered his wife $1,000,000 in cash to acquiesce in all his demands she asked $3,500,000, possession of the children for six months of each year, the retention of the securities and real estate now in her name and Mr. Phipps does not appear to appreciate the conditions which prompts these demands. The several attorneys retained by Mrs. Phipps have left Pittsburg for New York. No settlement is in sight. Mrs. Phipps is said to have retained Senator Knox to contest the divorce suit and it now seems certain that the Pittsburg courts will make public history of the Phipps' family skeleton.

FAIR TRIAL BILL

of Montana Declared Constitutional.

Helena, Mont., June 22.—The "Fair trial" bill for the adoption of which the state legislature was summoned in extraordinary session last December, was today declared constitutional by the supreme court, thus ending one of the most bitter contests in the Heinze-Amalgamated warfare. The result is favorable to the latter, as under the provisions of the law a change of venue and also of the judges is compulsory upon the filing of affidavits that a presiding judge is prejudiced against one of two litigants.

It was because of one of the decisions of Judge Clancy at Butte against the Amalgamated company that the latter decided to close down all its properties in Montana last fall throwing 20,000 men out of work. Before it would reopen its properties, the Amalgamated company exacted from Governor Toole a proclamation summoning the legislature in special session for the passage of a law that would permit a change of venue, it being charged that all three Butte judges were bitter Heinze partisans and would not under any circumstances decide the case against Heinze. Rather than permit the chief industry of the state to remain idle, the legislature was called in special session and after more or less filibustering on the part of the Heinze faction, the bill became law and this was today declared constitutional.

BRUTAL FATHER

Shot Three Times by His Son.

The first two loads took effect in the face. Walker will recover, but it is thought will be blind. The son became enraged at his father's brutal treatment of his mother and intended to kill him.

The boy was standing twenty steps away and fired the third shot after his father had fallen to the ground. He is 17 years old. He fled and has not been arrested. His father was taken to Montgomery for treatment.

DEPORTATION

Added to Her Other Misfortunes.

Boston, Mass., June 22.—Frederico Polacio, an Italian aged 35 was arrested tonight charged with larceny of $3,000 in cash and $2,000 worth of jewelry from Maria D'Ischia in Brooklyn on May 21, and also with having raped her.

The woman is an opera singer and came to this country as a stowaway, owing to eye trouble which would have debarred her from passing as a regular immigrant. Upon the arrival of the steamship she was helped ashore by three Italian men and a woman and taken to Polacio's house at 117 Harrison St., Brooklyn, where she was detained for three days, during which time she was raped, she says, and her money and jewelry stolen from her.

The woman associate of the men is the wife of Polacio and is under indictment in New York at the present time, charged with stealing the diamonds. The two other men escaped. Madame D'Ischia is at present in the custody of the federal officers and at the conclusion of the case will be returned to Italy.

HIS FATHER

Wrote "My Country 'Tis of Thee."

Davenport, Iowa, June 22.—Samuel Francis Smith, Jr., son of the author of the national anthem, "My Country 'Tis of Thee," was arrested here today charged with embezzlement. Four warrants were sworn out against him conveying an alleged delinquency of $65,000, although the examination of Smith's accounts, it is alleged, show a shortage of over $100,000 in funds he held in trust. Smith was a former mayor of Davenport and was prominent in Iowa politics as well as in church, social and charitable movements. A recent confession of his peculations was a nine days' wonder in the middle west.

Smith gave bonds of $3,000 on each account. He expects to go to Boston to live until September when the grand jury meets and will take up his case.

Duluth, Minn., June 22.—The anti-Hearst men snatched victory from defeat after a fierce battle at the eleventh hour in the Democrat state convention. At midnight a compromise was effected which provides for an uninstructed delegation headed by Representative Lind, L. A. Rosing, H. L. Buck and C. D. O'Brien as delegates at large.

Buck is for Hearst, but the others are against him. The convention is still in session and it is not known how the district delegates will stand. They will probably be twelve for Hearst and six against him.

The platform, which was framed by the majority controlling the convention, composed of Bryan and Hearst men was reconsidered after the compromise was effected. The endorsement of the Kansas City platform and Bryan is permitted to stand but the instructions for Hearst are expunged.

He put in the night singing in his cell, the character of the music being such that the other prisoners could not sleep. Freddie is what the police call a "home hobo".
